SPECIAL POINTS OF INTEREST

- Child Sponsorships
- Mission Trips
- Christmas for Orphans
- Lent
- Ministry partners

During our recent trip, we had an opportunity to talk with each child attending Christian Light School; to hear their dreams and hopes for the future. We would like to introduce you to Barckley, Dadelie, Brunaele, & Danielo four amazing individuals who dream of rebuilding their country.

Barckley told me that he wants to be “a person who makes the plans to build a house” after he finishes school, and he will certainly be a skilled architect, if his careful planning and love of mathematics are an accurate indication.

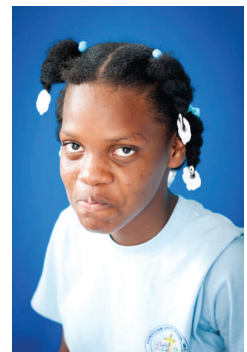

Dadelie is always eager to join in the fun at recess and can often be found singing around campus. Her favorite thing to do is play Duck-Duck-Goose and she loves to wear her yellow shoes! When she grows up she hopes to be a flight attendant.

Brunaele is pursuing her big and bold aspirations. She is working very hard on her health, math and Spanish studies because she wants to become a nurse “to help people in need [and to] help sick children”.

Danielo’s very favorite subject in Miss Magdala’s class is math. He is a joyful boy who loves to sing and worship. He also loves to hear the story of when Jesus Feeds 5,000, because of the miracles Jesus performs.

These incredible children need our support as they pursue their dreams.

MISSION TRIPS

We are in the planning stages of two trips right now. Our first trip will be November 2-November 9, 2014 back to Haiti. Our cost on this trip will be $1295.00 per person. If you would like to join this team let know ASAP and get your $600.00 deposit in to guarantee this price and a spot on the team.

Our second trip will be in early 2015 to Ecuador working on finalizing details. Based on preliminary findings our trip cost will be $2395.00 per person. This will be a 10 day trip with 2-3 days of side excursions to visit the beautiful flora and fauna of Ecuador. Deposit required for this trip is $1000.00. Tony Geouge has been working hard to make this a great trip for all who decide to join us.

CHRISTMAS FOR ORPHANS UPDATE

First of all I want to thank all those who gave! It truly was a God moment for Tony and myself. We had set a $2000.00 goal for the items and things we were planning for the children. As Tony and I were meeting 5 days before he was to return to Ecuador with the funds we only had $182.00. A little disheartened Tony said we'll do what we can do with what we have, my reply was we need $2000.00 lets take it to the Lord in prayer right now (Thank you Dr. Doug Dorman for that lesson in Faith!).

Sure enough over the next few days people called and said they had a check for Christmas for Orphans to meet our $2000.00 goal.

Each child received a new toy, a new pair of shoes and new undergarments. We were also able to add a microphone and new guitar strings to the musical equipment that we purchased last year.

The children also got to go to a park and have a big day off the property.

The children at Waccamaw Boys and girls Home had a big pizza party and each child received a present. Big thank you to Yan Tonkin and North Myrtle Beach Christian School for putting that together.

LENT

I have never really been one to pick up the spirit of giving up something for lent. But this morning God decided to wake me up at 5:12 AM and speak to me about sacrifice on the first day of Lent. At first I just tried to ignore Him and go back to sleep not very successfully though. I know 5:12 AM is not early for many of you but I prefer a 7:00 am wake up call or sometimes a little later. When I was working at Chick Fil A I had to be there at 5:15 Am. Rhonda was already in the shower getting ready for her ER shift so I am familiar with this time of day just don't particular care for it. My son has a name for it The Butt Crack of Dawn I tend to agree with him.

Well anyway as I lay there thinking about the sacrifice God made for us with His son Jesus on the cross (which blows my mind, I have a son and cant even imagine this sacrifice). As I continued to wrestle with God over sleep and/or sacrifice, His continual prodding of what's it going to be finally ushered me out of bed. And the answer is sweets I know for some this is probably not a big deal but for me I love some ice cream, cookies, candy bar or a spoonful of Nutella. Please pray for me to be strong during Lent.
